A public talk by Linda Tuhiwai Smith, with Eve Tuck serving as discussant, celebrating the 15th anniversary of “Decolonizing Methodologies: Research and Indigenous Peoples”
Monday, April 22nd, 6pm – 8pm, followed by a reception
Rm. 9204 – 9207, Ninth Floor

A student session for emerging scholars to connect, share, and discuss their projects with Linda Tuhiwai Smith and each other
Wednesday, April 24th, 9.30am – 11am
Rm. 6304.01, Sixth Floor
Please RSVP to rachel.liebert@gmail.com

A colloquium talk and discussion with Linda Tuhiwai Smith hosted by Critical Social/Personality and Environmental Psychology students
Wednesday, April 24th, 11.45am – 1.30pm
Rm. 6304.01, Sixth Floor

Co-Sponsored by the Advanced Research Collaborative, Public Science Project, Critical Social/Personality and Environmental Psychology, URBAN, Center for Humanities, and Earth & Environmental Sciences at CUNY Graduate Center, and The Department of Teaching, Learning and Sociocultural Studies, and The Native Peoples Technical Assistance Program at the University of Arizona.
For more information, please contact Rachel, rachel.liebert@gmail.com